BRACKEN GRAND JURY REFUSES TO INDICT MAYSVILLE MAN

"Kirk" Stickley Is Released By Bracken County Grand Jury When Serious Charges Made Against Him Are Unwarranted.

Lycourges J. Stickley, local painter and paper hanger, arrived in Maysville Tuesday evening from Brooksville where he had been confined in the Bracken county jail for the past two months awaiting a hearing before the grand jury of that county on a most serious charge supposed to have been made by a little girl.

After a thorough investigation of the charge against the Maysville man, the Bracken county grand jury refused to bring an indictment against him and dismissed him. He says, however, that he was frightened by reports brought to him of the feeling against him in Bracken county. He says he never at any time feared a trial on the charge and would have surrendered himself for trial but for the rumors he received from Bracken county.

At the time of the charge being made, Mr. Stickley's many friends refused to believe him guilty of so serious a charge and the only thing done to shake their faith in him was his leaving this section. He says, however, that he was frightened by reports brought to him of the feeling against him in Bracken county. He says he never at any time feared a trial on the charge and would have surrendered himself for trial but for the rumors he received from Bracken county.

Mr. Stickley says he was treated in a splendid manner by the Bracken county authorities during his incarceration.

Armistice Day should be a day of thanksgiving. Celebrate! Why, of course—at the Washington Consolidated School. The Boys' Band will be there by 10 o'clock, so don't be late. Dinner will be served from 11:30 to 1:30. Come and bring your friends.

FAIR BOOSTERS ARE WELL RECEIVED ON TRIP

Business Men Who Visited Nearby Sections on Tuesday Predict Record Breaking Crowds for 1920 Fair.

The members of the various booster teams who visited all adjoining sections Tuesday by automobile in the interest of the Corn and Tobacco Fair, bring back glowing reports of the manner in which they were received at every stop along their trip. They predict a great number of visitors to the fair from all adjoining sections and report a splendid feeling for Maysville and the Maysville tobacco market.

Realizing that the Maysville Corn and Tobacco Fair is for the benefit of all tobacco growers in this entire section of the country, everyone is hoisting the fair.

Arrangements were made on this trip for the advertising of the fair in all nearby county seat newspapers and a large amount of advertising matter was posted all along all the routes so that the fair is very extensively advertised.

I am going to the Armistice Day dinner at the Washington Consolidated School. Aren't you? Why not make a day of it and see the comedy—"Mrs. Tubbs of Shantytown" presented at 7:30? Oysters and other good things will be served before and after the play, so eat and be merry. I intend to. Don't miss this play for it insures the laughter that is good for us.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 10.—The Right Rev. Lewis W. Burton, Lexington, Bishop of the Lexington Diocese, Episcopal Church, was 63 years old Tuesday and celebration of the event was made a special feature of "Bishop's Day," observed by churchmen of Northern Kentucky at Covington, where Bishop Burton was the guest of honor. A luncheon and addresses followed the Bishop and an address by him to women of the diocese were on the program.

AMERICAN LEGION ARRANGES ALL PLANS FOR CELEBRATION

Parade and Community Meeting at Beechwood Park to Mark Celebration of the Anniversary of Armistice Day.

Officers of the Leslie H. Arthur Post American Legion announce all arrangements for the celebration of Armistice Day on Thursday now completed and these arrangements promise one of the greatest celebrations held in Maysville in a long time.

Although all of Thursday is considered a city holiday as well as a state and national holiday, only the afternoon and evening will be celebrated in Maysville.

The big celebration will begin promptly at 1 o'clock with a great parade of City and County officials, ex-service men of all wars, fraternity men and workmen headed by our famous Boys' Band. This parade will move East on Second from Sutton to Market; south on Market to Third; east on Third to Bridge; north on Bridge to Second; east on Second to Beechwood Park where the balance of the afternoon will be spent in a Community meeting. A concert will be given at the park by the Boys' Band and Community singing will be led by Miss Russell, soloist of the Boys' Band.

The address at the day will be made at Beechwood after the arrival of the parade by Hon. Thomas L. Pogue, former City Attorney of Cincinnati, and a native Maysvillian. Barbecued beef will be furnished free to those attending the big meeting at Beechwood. The evening will bring on a great military hall at Beechwood Park Casino which will be thrown open to the public and which promises to be one of the biggest dances of the entire year.

Hundreds of people are expected to spend the day in Maysville from the country and the adjoining counties, and the people of Maysville are called upon to decorate their homes and business houses with the American colors. The most of the local stores will close during the afternoon and practically all business will be temporarily suspended in honor of the soldiers of the great World War.

Armistice Day at Pastime. Manager Triebel has booked a very special feature for Armistice Day. The attraction is the great story of the North Canadian woods "Under Northern Light," featuring such famous stars as Virginia Faire, William Buckley and Leonard Clapham. The scenes of the story are laid in the Canadian wilds and the characters are the folks who live on the border of civilization. A story of love and duty and the Royal Northwest mounted police.

Former Maysville Woman Asks Divorce. Mrs. Nan McDaniel Duhur, of Cincinnati, is suing for a divorce from her husband charging abandonment. They were married in 1900 and have two children, one 17 and one 19 years of age. The wife charges that her husband is now in New York driving an automobile.

Mr. Browning's Funeral on Thursday Morning. The funeral of Mr. George C. Browning will be held from the home in East Second street Thursday morning at 11 o'clock with services by Dr. John Barbour, of the Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in the Maysville cemetery.

Church Meeting on Thursday Evening. The deacons and officers of the First Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting at the church Tuesday evening preparatory for the monthly church meeting which will be held following prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

Notice K. of C. All those desiring to take part in the Armistice Day parade please be at the hall at 1 o'clock prompt. R. B. WILLOCKS, Secretary.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TO INITIATE 78 MEN HERE SUNDAY

Large Class To Be Initiated Into the Maysville Council, 1377, Knights of Columbus on Next Sunday—All Day Session To Be Held.

Next Sunday will be a great day for the local council Knights of Columbus, as on that day a class of 78 men will be initiated into the mysteries of the order and the local Knights are expecting visitors from all sections of Kentucky to witness the great initiation.

The work will be conferred by State Deputy John J. Donovan, of Ludlow, and District Deputy Charles H. Purdy, of Covington, assisted by the degree teams from Covington and Louisville. Among those who are to be initiated are several from Lexington but the great majority of the members of the class will become members of the Maysville Council.

The session will begin at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and will last during the entire day, it being expected that the work will be completed about 7 o'clock Sunday evening. After the conference of the work, there will be a great banquet spread at Neptune Hall and chief among the speakers at this banquet will be Judge Edward Dickson, of Cincinnati, and Hon. M. J. Hennessey, of Augusta. The initiation and all day session will be held in the Eagles Hall in Second street which is better fitted for the work than the Knights of Columbus hall in the O'Keefe building.

Invitations have been extended by the local council to the various councils throughout the state and a large number of visitors are being expected and prepared for by the entertainment committee. A initiation in Maysville always attracts a large number of visitors.

Miss Margaret R. Brown will open a night class in bookkeeping, Monday evening, November 15th. Phone 359-R or 696. 9 Nov 11

JEALOUS HUSBAND KILLS NEIGHBOR IN LEXINGTON

Lexington Man Slays Neighbor With Shotgun Charging He Had Violated His Home.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 10. — Jealous because of attentions he thought were being received by his wife, Bert Tudor, 30 years old, of 715 West Short street, Tuesday shot and killed instantly Robert Haney, 22 years old, in front of the Tudor home.

The contents of a shotgun were discharged into Haney's left breast, striking his heart and causing instant death. Tudor then took the gun back into his house, walked three blocks, met two policemen and surrendered. He is in the county jail tonight, charged with murder.

After the killing Mrs. E. Haney, mother of the victim, attacked with a bayonet Mrs. Bettie Tudor, wife of the slayer. Mrs. Tudor was cut severely above the eye.

Mrs. Tudor said her husband had no cause to shoot Haney, and that "he shot him down like a dog." She said her husband had introduced her to Haney and that when they went driving in their car, Haney was the only one who could "crank" the machine. She said that her relations with Haney were only such as exist between friends.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

BUY BREEDING STOCK NOW.

Lexington, Ky., November 5. — "In times of peace prepare for war." The livestock industry is quiet at the present time due to a falling off in prices. As a result of the slump in values of market stock there has been a decrease in the demand for pure-bred sires.

With values of registered stock down as is the case now, it is a good time to select a bull, or ram or boar to head the herd. Good registered males can be bought for little above the price of market stock. This is not likely to be true as spring and a new breeding season approaches.

More cattle or more hogs may not be needed or may not be profitable, but it is certain better ones will pay better. Too many of the cattle and hogs on our farms do not make good use of their feed. Just here is the difference between the well bred and the poor bred animal. The scrub takes too long a time and too much feed to get into market condition; while the well bred animals turn all his feed into flesh in the shortest possible time. This is well illustrated by the two pigs, one a scrub and other by a registered boar which were weaned at the same age of eight weeks. They were kept from that time until six months of age in the same pen. They ate the same kind of feed out of the one common trough and drank from the same bucket. At the end of the time, the scrub weighed 95 pounds, while the other weighed 200 pounds. The condition and the quality of the last made it worth more per pound than his pen mate.

"The Wires are Already There—"

Sometimes, when folks order a telephone, they say: "It won't take you but a few minutes to install it, because the wires are already on the house."

BUT—

The circuit from the house all the way to the telephone exchange is the one that really counts—

That circuit is released—used for some other subscribers—when a telephone is removed.

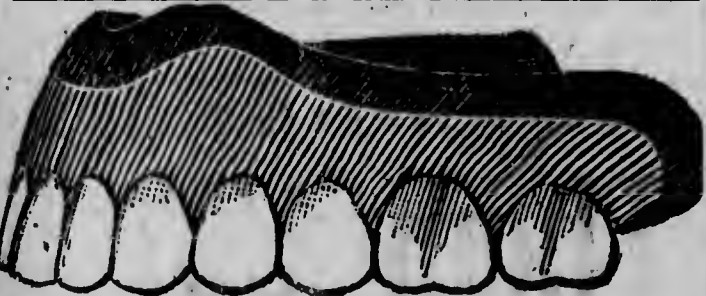

Another must be built up for you before your telephone can be installed, and that takes time and work—

That is why it takes longer than "just a few minutes" to install a telephone—because there is a great deal more to do than simply to fasten the instrument on your wall!

WEAK; RUN-DOWN

Carolina Lady Got So She Could Just Drag—"Cardui Built Me Up," She Declares.

Kernersville, N. C.—In an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of near here, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became draggy—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag. I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous, weak feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good. Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did."

"I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt had and tired out all the time. It brought her right out, and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui."

Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found just as Mrs. Mabe describes. At your druggist's. NC-142

EXHAUSTED HER ADVICE.

As a rule it is the new father who is the bore, and the visito rried pol to stifle his yawns while the baby is eulogized. But the dame who called upon Mr. Jones after the birth of his first reserved the usual order of things.

She was full of advice. She told him what to do and what not to do, how to treat the baby when it cried, how to sing to it, what school to send it to, what religion it should follow and what profession to adopt.

Mr. Jones was just about to ask her advice regarding something else when she suddenly jumped up and said she was so sorry, but she really must be going.

"Really?" murmured Mr. Jones.

"Yes, I really must. Good-bye! I expect your baby will be much larger when I see her again."

"Yes," said Mr. Jones, "I sincerely hope so."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

RECRUITS RUSH AT CHANCE TO SEE EUROPE

American Soldier in Germany Is Wealthy When U. S. Money Is Compared to the German Mark.

So great was the rush of recruits for service in Germany when enlistments were thrown open on November 1 that before telegrams discontinuing acceptances could go out from Major General P. C. Harris, The Adjutant General of the Army, to Army recruiting officers throughout the country, twice the number of men desired had enrolled. There were 200 infantry vacancies, and in six hours 250 had enlisted, but before they could be stopped, 338 had joined. For the 56 vacancies in other branches, 90 men got in under the wire before they could be held up from Washington, a total of 428.

Letters home from soldiers in the American forces in Germany tell a story of pleasant life on the Rhine, with the American dollar worth so many marks that the average private is almost a plutocrat when compared to the Germans. An interesting side light on service there is the fact that a number of discharged men on their way home recently turned back at Antwerp to reenlist.

THE WINDUP.

At the school examination the examiner asked one child:

"What are the products of our Indian Empire?"

The unhappy infant began nervously to reel off the list she had got by heart:

"Please, sir, India produces curries and pepper and rice and citron and chillies and chutney and—and—and—"

"Yes, yes," said the examiner, impatiently. "What comes after all that?"

Another infant's hand was raised.

"Well, you tell her what comes after that?"

"Please, sir, India-gestation." — Tid-bits.

Attention, Tobacco Sellers

The Maysville Tobacco Warehouse takes great pleasure in announcing to the Tobacco Growers that the Maysville Market will again have a full corps of buyers—in fact more than they ever had.

The following factories and firms will be represented direct by their own individual buyers: The American Tobacco Co., Liggett & Myers, Lorillard Co. (for the first time by a direct buyer), J. B. Helzer Co., Lovell & Burlington, Thos. H. Gray, R. J. Reynolds Co., I. L. Walker Tobacco Co., J. P. Taylor Co. Besides remanufacturers without number. There will be in operation 6 re-driers and storage houses with a capacity of 50,000,000 pounds.

The houses have ample floor and drive capacity to take care of every wagon and truck or horse-drawn that comes. So no matter what the rush, you can always rest assured of being under shelter. The buying end have greatly increased their facilities for handling. So as to keep the Tobacco moving.

Last season more than ever continued us that Tobacco must be carefully stripped, each leaf put where it belongs and that it must be more carefully hand sorted than ever, if you wish full value. And we have slowly come to the conclusion the grower in his own barn can more carefully and better sort it than we. Especially as the help we can get who really know how, is getting scarce, each year. So we have decided to give up any attempt at sorting and will this season put it on the basket just as it comes off the wagon or truck. So we must insist that you load it just as you want it put on the basket. The outlook for extreme high prices is not promising, though we still believe a good crop well handled will sell satisfactorily. So it more important than for years you select a market where there will be all possible competition and take more pains than ever in handling. Be sure and keep all leaves affected with the Rust or Wildfire to themselves. Very Respectfully,

Milledgeville, Ga., No. 8. — J. W. Gans, former guard of the state farm, who eloped with Juanita Weaver, an inmate of the institution on November 1, has been arrested at Tampa, Fla., and will be returned here with the woman tomorrow.

State farm officials said he would be charged with aiding and abetting a prisoner to escape.

The Weaver woman, who was serving a year's sentence for shoplifting, told the Tampa police after her arrest that Gans forced her to elope with him under a threat of death if she refused.

GETTING IN BAD.

A wealthy gentleman has a brother who is hard of hearing, while he himself is remarkable for having a very prominent nose.

Once this gentleman dined at a friend's house, where he sat between two young ladies, who talked to him very loudly, rather to his annoyance.

Finally one of them shouted a commonplace remark and then said in an ordinary tone to the other:

"Did you ever see such an ugly nose?"

"Pardon me, ladies," said the gentleman. "It is my brother who is deaf!" — Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

IRISH WORRY OVER THE EXPENSE OF DAMAGES

Reprisals by Black and Tans Amount to £10,000,000 For Which Taxpayers Are Held Responsible.

Dublin, Nov. 8. — Taxpayers in Ireland are agitated over the question who is to pay for the damages resulting from reprisals committed by the "Black and Tans," or semi-military force, employed by the government to suppress Sinn Fein disorders.

The total amount of damages resulting from Sinn Fein disorders, and reprisals by Orangemen and government agents in Ireland, is estimated to be nearly £10,000,000. Already awards amounting to £5,000,000 for damages inflicted by the Sinn Feiners have been assessed against the taxpayers.

The law prescribes that the taxpayer shall pay for all willful damage to property or life maliciously inflicted. The County Judges, who pass upon claims arising from damages in Black and Tan reprisals have granted awards to the claimants and attempted to make them the charge against the local authorities. They have, however, indicated in their judgments that they believe the government should make good the losses caused by its own servants.

The principal taxpayers in Ireland are for the most part Unionists who are the largest property holders and would be hardest hit if the taxpayers were compelled to pay these damage claims. While they are anxious to help the government put down disorder, many disapprove of the Black and Tan reprisals and are unwilling to pay for the consequences of them.

The Irish Times, the principal Unionist newspaper, demands that the government shall make a clear public statement "that the obligation to compensate for murder, arson and robbery committed by the servants of the government is acknowledged by the government and will be promptly met."

The government paid the bill of about £3,000,000 for the damage suffered by the city of Dublin in the Easter week rebellion, and this is pointed to as a precedent for similar action in the matter of Black and Tan reprisals.

It is expected that the government will also be asked to pay for the damage inflicted by the Sinn Feiners to which awards amounting to £5,000,000 already have been made by county judges. Besides there is a bill for the damage done by Orangemen in Ulster towns.

Three teachers in our public schools recently attended a teachers meeting in Cincinnati.

Monday morning as Earl Tinsley of near Colfax, Fleming county, was going to Flemingsburg to resume his work at the saw mill on the McHugh farm his hat blew off at the Vansant curve near there and in jumping from the machine to recover it he alighted on his head and was badly hurt. He was taken to J. W. Kissick's and has since been in an unconscious condition except at times. His skull is fractured and he will likely be taken to a Lexington hospital today.

NATIONAL MEETING OF TOBACCO GROWERS IS CALLED

John W. Newman, of Barley Tobacco Growers' Association Calls Conference of All the Organizations.

Representatives of tobacco growers' organizations in the United States will meet in Washington December 9 to discuss protective legislation for the growers, and confer with members of congress, the Federal Trade Commission and Secretary of Agriculture Meredith. The meeting was called Monday by John W. Newman, of Versailles, chairman of the temporary officers of the Barley Tobacco Growers' Association, and invitations were sent to growers' organizations in all tobacco states.

The Barley organization was invited to send a committee of officers to the joint meeting of the Virginia and North Carolina growers' organizations' meeting, which will be held in Raleigh, N. C., Wednesday, but the invitation was declined by Chairman Newman, and the two associations invited to send delegates to the Washington meeting.

John H. Warren, of Danville, Va., head of the Virginia growers, has invited Mr. Newman to confer with him relative to tobacco problems. The two chiefs probably will meet in Washington.

The meeting on December 10 will be the first attempt to bring together in a national conference the growers of tobacco, in the production of which the United States leads the world.

All of the associations are of recent origin, having been formed this summer, when prices declined below the cost of production and tobacco growers found themselves facing what they believe a crisis.

MANY WHISKY INDICTMENTS IN FLEMING.

The Fleming Gazette says: "By the grand jury report it will be seen that 63 indictments have been returned. At the request of the Clerk the indictments are not published, but in most part they are for violations of the liquor laws, mostly relating to the sale of moonshine liquor, ginger preparations and nostrums gotten up mainly for beverage purposes and containing alcohol. One of these is a ginger concoction which it is alleged will knock a person drunk after drinking it."

GARAGE IS BURNED.

A garage on the rear of the property of Prof. R. Y. Maxey in Forest avenue was completely ruined by fire this afternoon. It was quite fortunate that Prof. Maxey's machine was out of the garage at the time and nothing of any great value was burned. Prof. Maxey's young son, Ward, who is about five years old, burned some leaves and trash at the side of the garage and from this fire the garage caught. The fire department soon after its arrival had the blaze under control and prevented its spread to nearby property.

SUSPECTED HOG CHOLERA CASES INVESTIGATED.
